Health Certificate For Hair.

Any woman who changes doctors no doubt has her own reasons for making the change. The woman in this case was threatened with fever. Her first question was, "Shall I lose my hair?"

"Most likely," said the doctor. The next day he found a man with a pair of shears standing at the bedside.

"Doctor," said the man, "I wish you would write out a certificate that this hair is healthy. The lady wants to sell it. She says if she's bound to lose it anyhow in this spell of sickness she is in for she might as well get rid of it now while it will bring a good price. If she waits till it falls out nobody will buy it. Women with nice hair and not much money are smart enough nowadays to sell their hair as soon as they fall ill. Most dealers take it and no questions asked. I'm too conscientious. I want a doctor's certificate every time in a case like this. I hope you'll be obliging."

The doctor was not obliging, and the next day a new doctor was called in—Philadelphia Ledger.

Wood Pulp Paper.

Wood pulp paper is made from wood—poplar, spruce or pine usually—which has been reduced to a fine pulp either by grinding while wet or through chemical means. The pulp is kept diluted with water while fed on to the bed of the paper machine, the bed being a continuous band or wide belt of finely woven wire. It is supported by rollers set close together and in rapid motion, the latter to set the fibers of the paper. The sheet forms almost at once, as soon as the water drains through the wire cloth, though it is then moist and weak. Successive rollers and vacuum boxes press and dry out more moisture, the rollers heated by steam finally render it perfectly dry, and then it is run between finishing rollers, varying according to the exact kind of paper to be made.—London Standard.

The Norwegian Costume. It is at church in Norway that the national costume is best seen. In the north the women wear short dark gowns, with fringed handkerchiefs tied becomingly over their curly fair hair, black ones for the matrons and white ones for maidens. In the south the old Norwegian dress is often worn. It consists of a short dark petticoat, with a stripe of bright colors, a full white blouse and a red bodice heavily embroidered, while on Sundays a quantity of silver pins and chains are added. The headdress varies according to the occasion and the wearer's social condition. The girls wear jaunty red caps, the married women a coil made of many folds of starched white linen, plaited over a wooden frame, and a bride wears a high metal crown curiously chased and set with jewels.

Pascal's Early Observation. Blaise Pascal, who wrote a remarkable treatise on the laws of sound, was constantly observing the familiar occurrences about him even as a boy. When he was only ten years old he sat at the dinner table one day striking his plate with his knife and then listening to the sound.

"What are you doing with that plate, Blaise?" asked his sister.

"See," he replied. "When I strike the plate with my knife it rings. Hark!"

Again he called forth the sound. "When I grasp it with my hand so," he continued, "the sound ceases. I wonder why it is."

To Avoid Telling Secrets. A New York theatrical manager was advising a friend to be cautious in an undertaking he had in view.

"You can't take too many precautions," he asserted. "An ounce of prevention," as the copybook used to say, "is better than seven pounds of allopathic, homeopathic or hydropathic cure." One of the most contented men I ever knew was the most cautious. He was deaf and dumb, and he never went to bed without putting on boxing gloves.

"Boxing gloves? What for?"

"So that he wouldn't talk in his sleep."

Gold Filled. What does "gold filled" mean? Probably most people who buy gold filled watches fancy that they are mysteriously impregnated with gold. The term is misleading. Gold filling consists in taking two sheets of gold, between which is placed a section of solder coated base metal. This metallic sandwich is heated and pressed, so that the three parts are welded together, with the gold outside.—Chicago News.

Her Hard Task. "That's a beautiful girl you have in your store," said the man acquaintance. "I've seen her in the window several days as I passed."

"She isn't an employee," the milliner answered wearily. "She's a woman trying to decide on a new hat."—Buffalo Express.

A Duty. We should tell ourselves once for all that it is the first duty of the soul to become as happy, complete, independent and great as lies in its power.—Maurice Maeterlinck.

Her Two Languages. He—Did you ever hear that Jagson's wife speaks two languages? She—Yes. He—What are they? She—The one for company and the other for Jagson.

Every time a man loses his temper he loses his head, and when he loses his head he loses several chances.

Be sure and take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. PASTOR AND GIRL MISSING.

Rev. E. C. Bradburn, 32 years old, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Spencer, N. Y., is missing and much anxiety is expressed on the part of friends and members of his congregation. Mr. Bradburn has not been heard from since a week ago last Sunday, when he went over to Nichols to preach. Miss Marian White, 29 years old, granddaughter of Luther B. White, is also missing and gossip in Ithaca has connected the names of the pastor and the young woman.

Mr. Bradburn went to Nichols to exchange pulpits with the pastor there. He has not been seen since. The same day Miss White packed two grips and hired a man to drive her to Tioga Center, where she boarded a train. Her destination is unknown.

Mr. Bradburn has officiated about two years as pastor of the churches at Spencer and Halsey Valley and has become popular with the members of both congregations. He and Miss White knew each other well, but it is not known in Ithaca that they ever were intimate. When Mr. and Mrs. Bradburn were away for a vacation, Miss White went along and she was apparently on the best of terms with the pastor and his wife.

In buying a cough medicine, don't be afraid to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is sure to follow. Especially recommended for coughs, colds and whooping cough. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

William Sharp and Robert Bruce, both colored, who for seven or eight years have worked on various farms in the vicinity of Tiptonville, Tenn., were lynched Monday night by a mob of about 40 men for an attempted assault on two little daughters of Jack Downing, at their home at Connersville. The negroes were taken from Sheriff Haines in a cypress brake about three-quarters of a mile from Tiptonville, the sheriff having taken them there to hide them. The members of the mob were not masked.
